Co-operation to be Keynote of Great Festival

Community Festival on Oct. 29-30-31

Three-Day Event Is Planned to Promote Common Interests

Capt. C. S. Nusbaum Engaged to Conduct Whirlwind Campaign

Sierra Madre business men will stage a three-day community festival on October 29, 30 and 31 that promises to be one of the most important events in the history of Sierra Madre. Capt. C. S. Nusbaum, community specialist and business engineer, has been secured to conduct the festival.

Plans for the Community Festival were launched at a luncheon meeting of business men in the Sierra Madre cafe Thursday noon. The gathering was the aftermath of a conference between Capt. Nusbaum and the chamber of commerce directors, Monday night. That group did not want to undertake the project without the wholehearted and unanimous support of the business community.

Thursday's luncheon was the most representative gathering of business men held here in a long time. After listening to Captain Nusbaum talk for twenty minutes, it was the unanimous decision to talk up the plan, which has been followed with great success in many other communities.

Cooperation of every organization and civic force in the community is one of the essentials to the success of this community festival. An effort was made to select dates which would not conflict with events already scheduled. All who have studied the outline of activities presented by Capt. Nusbaum agree that the benefits will not only inure to the chamber of commerce but to the business, social and religious organization in Sierra Madre.

Detailed announcement of the program will be made in next week's News. Briefly, the program includes a community banquet and entertainment Monday night, October 29, at which Capt. Nusbaum will speak; a conference with the business men on Tuesday night, October 30, and a grand community celebration Wednesday night, October 31. Preceding and during the festival Capt. Nusbaum will be heard briefly at various civic group meetings.

One phase of the campaign will be to develop the trade-at-home spirit among the citizens, to stimulate policies among business houses which will make trading at home more worth while. In line with these activities, all business houses will be encouraged to wind up the week with a great special trade-at-home sale on Friday and Saturday, November 2 and 3.

President Campbell of the chamber of commerce and Dr. J. L. Woehler, vice president, are busy forming committees to carry out the various items in the Community Festival program. The time is short. It will mean a period of intensive activity. The secret of success will be complete cooperation.

Capt. Nusbaum started his active life as an Indiana farm boy. After teaching school awhile, he spent several years in business in Chicago. For many years he was a chautauque lecturer and field director. He was field director at large for the American Red Cross during the world war, being given the rank of captain in the United States army upon his retirement. Committee appointments are as follows: Banquet, Waverly Pratt, Al Myers; general arrangements, R. C. Openheimer, J. M. Campbell; music and entertainment, Joe R. Eastwood, W. R. Humphries; publicity, George B. Morggridge, Fred Griebow; business men's committee, Tom Tyler, Walter Poehler, Albert Wheeling.

New Officers of Auxiliary to Be Installed Oct. 25

Installation of the newly elected officers of the Sierra Madre unit of the American Legion Auxiliary will take place in the social hall of the Congregational Church next Thursday night, October 25, at 8 o'clock. The installation ritual will be conducted by Mrs. Agnes Walker of Glendale, ninth district member of the executive committee.

Following the ceremonies, which are brief, there will be a short entertainment and refreshments will be served. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend the installation.

Card Parties and Bazaar Plans Keep Church Ladies Busy

Large attendance and the usual enjoyable time were features of the card party given Tuesday night by the ladies of St. Rita's parish in St. Rita's Hall. The door prize was won by Mrs. Ada Oswald. Bridge prizes went to Mrs. Lovell, Mrs. Baskins and Mrs. Wynne; prizes at 500 were won by O. A. Bergien, Mrs. Penders, Mrs. McCloskey, Mrs. Schiltz and Frank Bergien.

The next card party will be held on Tuesday, November 17. The next regular date would have been on election day. Plans for the annual bazaar are going forward at a fine rate. The dates selected are December 14 and 15.

Tarkington Comedy Said To Be Great

Performance Under Masonic Auspices to Be Given Two Nights

Reports of those who have kept in touch with rehearsals and other preparations for the production of "The Wren" indicate that next week's comedy offering will be one of the most enjoyable in the annals of local play production. This Booth Tarkington comedy is decidedly "different," and the cast under the capable direction of Mrs. H. E. Allen are making the most of it.

During the past week a scare was thrown into the cast and play management when W. C. Gruit was suddenly called away on business after having brought the part of "Roddy" to a high degree of perfection. In the emergency Stafford Sadler was drafted for the place and has fitted in so nicely that rehearsals are going on smoothly as ever.

Scenic effects for the play will be particularly effective. A large part of the credit for this is due to the fine cooperation of Hagwood & Carlson, decorators. Everything indicates that the house will be sold out for both nights of the performance.

Mothers of children attending the Woodrow Wilson junior high are invited to attend a tea next Tuesday from 3 to 5 at the home of Mrs. Phillip Senour, 81 East Grand View Avenue, president. On account of the large number of local pupils Mrs. Senour is anxious to have the organization well supported.

The regular monthly meeting of the Woodrow Wilson P.T.A. will be held next Thursday afternoon, October 25, in the school library.

Strange how radio engineers can time the introduction of improved models to fit your last year's installment on the old one. Washington Post.

New Batting Order to Win Sunday Tilt

Coach Smith Pins Faith on Local Caseys to Bring Home the Bacon

A re-vamped batting order will confront the opposition Sunday when the Graham Bakery comes out from the big town to play a session of the great American pastime with the local scintillators. W. B. "Smitty" Smith, coach of the local outfit, believes he has a winning line-up with Kinkle and Heber heading the batting order, with Harkness, E. Smith and Poehler taking their respective turns in advancing them to the welcome mat, in front of the new grandstand seats. Not only is the lineup thought to be the strongest that has been offered so far, but the reserves loom up as formidable opposition for any of those accorded regular berths.

The game will open Sunday with the following line-up in the field: Kinkle, 3b; Heber, lf; Harkness, 2b; E. Smith, cf; Poehler, rf; L. Smith, ss; V. Miller, lb; Lama, c; Bent, p; Kinney, p; Utility, Elk, Young, Brain, Lalone. The game will start at 2:30 and there will be no admission, though a collection will be taken to help defray transportation expenses of the visitors, expense of the umpire, new balls, etc. Sierra Madre is getting splendid entertainment at a minimum of expense, and the local enthusiasts appreciate the efforts of the local management and supporters among the business men.

Local Pastor New Head of Association

Rev. A. O. Pritchard Given High Honor by L. A. Convention

Association Also Votes to Hold Next Meeting in Sierra Madre

Rev. A. O. Pritchard of the First Congregational Church of Sierra Madre was elected Moderator of the Los Angeles Association of Congregational Churches at the annual meeting held Tuesday in the Olivet Congregational Church, Los Angeles. He will hold office for the term of one year.

Additional honor came to the Sierra Madre church when the convention voted to accept the invitation to hold their next annual meeting here in October, 1929. The fame of the beauty and utility of the new church building has been spread so generally among the church people of other places that the opportunity to hold the conference here was eagerly welcomed.

The Sierra Madre church was represented at the convention by Mr. Pritchard as pastor, Mrs. Wm. Laidlaw and Daniel Shaffer as delegates, and Mrs. Elizabeth Sealebury.

Virginia Flather was the hostess to a group of young friends last Saturday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Flather, 286 East Alameda. The event being in honor of her seventh birthday. (Hallowe'en) decorations and a large birthday cake were important features of the affair. The guests included Charlene Rasbach, Betty Jo Adams, Georgine Perry, Mary Jane Munson, Wayne Munson, Dorothy Alley, Rosemary Forrester, Katherine and Nina Norris and Barbara Wages.

Kiwanians Of District Gather Here

Oratorical Contest The Feature of Splendid Banquet Program

Kiwanians from ten clubs gathered in Sierra Madre Wednesday night for a division conference and oratorical contest. About 125 men sat down to a banquet served by the Women's Club. Committee headed by Mrs. W. R. Lees, enjoyed a snappy entertainment program and heard a lot of wholesome Kiwanis doctrine.

The conference was held under auspices of Sierra Madre and Alhambra, the youngest clubs in the division, with Ray Grant and Maynard Turner as committee on arrangements winning high compliments from the division officers. Dr. Frank Buras of Pomona, lieutenant governor, presided, and kept things moving at a lively rate. The entertainment during the dinner was furnished by the Sierra Madre Trio consisting of Randolph Wood, violin; W. H. Ingraham, cello, and Oscar Rasbach, piano; Bob Harker and Bill Hatch with banjo and piano numbers, and Hobart Alter of Ontario with a violin solo, accompanied by Chet Swallow.

W. S. Dehnell of Pomona was chosen by the judges as winner of the oratorical contest. Clarence Jay of Alhambra was second, and W. H. Feeler of Monrovia third. Other contestants were Earl Messer of Pasadena, Dr. Frank C. Peirsol of Claremont, Joe Sellers of Ontario and Jim Fiske of San Gabriel. Each was given five minutes, and a remarkably high average of quality was maintained. The topic for all was: "Kiwanis. What it is and where it is going?" Mr. Dehnell's speech was not only well constructed but his splendid delivery held his hearers spellbound. In judging, 50 per cent was allowed for knowledge of Kiwanis, 40 per cent for inspiration to listeners and 10 per cent for delivery. The judges were Messrs. Burbank of Sierra Madre, Larson of Claremont, Farrell of Alhambra, Berryman of South Pasadena and Ewing of Alhambra.

Governor Bill Harris of San Bernardino was called upon to close the program, which he did with a splendid 15-minute talk. He predicted a fine chance for the winning orator in the contest at the California-Nevada district convention next month, in the face of mighty stiff competition. He also urged the value of these annual contests as a means of stimulating thought about Kiwanis, its problems and its development.

Lamb Company Buys Fine New Motor Equipment

W. B. Temple, in charge of the Lamb Funeral Parlor in Sierra Madre, is very proud of the new hearse and ambulance equipment just received by his company. The hearse is the latest type vehicle manufactured, and in fact is the first car of its kind to arrive in California. It is of the "three-way" type, admitting the casket thru wide double doors on each side, or thru the rear. The chassis is by the Buick company, and is of special design and coachwork. Finished in blue velour, with silver trimmings throughout, it presents a most striking appearance.

The ambulance is of the same make, and is also handsomely finished inside and out. The two new units, together with the reserve equipment held in readiness in cases of emergency, give Mr. Temple's company the finest equipment of any like establishment in the valley.

Masonic Club Of District Meets Here

Dinner to Be Held in the Masonic Temple Next Tuesday

Sierra Madre Lodge No. 408, F. & A. M., will be hosts to the Masonic officers' association of the 92nd district next Tuesday night. Dinner is announced for 6:30 and C. L. Twycross, master of the lodge, asks that reservations be made by phone (Blue 37) by Monday night.

All Master Masons are invited to attend the dinner. The meeting following the dinner will be devoted to discussion of legislation and other matters arising at the session of the Grand Lodge of California in San Francisco last week.

Mr. Twycross returned on Sunday, after spending the week in San Francisco. He reports a very enjoyable session, with visits to the Masonic home at Decoto and various entertainment events of interest. One evening he and several other members of the Los Angeles post office force who were among the grand lodge delegates were given a banquet by the postmaster of San Francisco, which was followed by a visit with Senator Shortridge at Radio Station KPO where the senator was speaking.

Last Tuesday night the degree of Master Mason was conferred by Sierra Madre lodge on Thomas Miller. The ceremonies were presided by one of Billie Murphy's famous steak dinners.

Mrs. N. T. McKee of Chicago arrived last week and is the house guest of Miss Leah Fletcher on West Highland. Mrs. McKee's husband, who passed away last spring was an official of the Standard Oil company. Mrs. McKee will spend the winter in Sierra Madre and San Diego.

Stanberrys Reach 50th Anniversary

Former Iowa Publisher and Wife Receive Many Congratulations

Mr. and Mrs. Rec Stanberry of 108 North Baldwin Avenue were receiving congratulations yesterday from all over the country on the occasion of their golden wedding anniversary. They had planned to observe the day quietly but their family and friends could not overlook the date.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanberry were dinner guests at the home of their niece, Mrs. C. A. Patton of Pasadena. Others present in addition to Mr. and Mrs. Patton were Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Farman of Sierra Madre and Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Stanberry of Pasadena.

The marriage of Miss Emma Lawrence and Mr. Stanberry took place at Charles City, Iowa, October 18, 1878. Most of their married life was spent in Mason City, Iowa, where Mr. Stanberry was for many years a daily newspaper publisher. They have one child, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith of Wallace, Idaho.

After Mr. Stanberry retired from active business they came to California to reside and have made their home in Sierra Madre for fourteen years. Both enjoy excellent health, and have made a practice for years of taking a summer motor trip to the north west, visiting their daughter and many places of interest.

High Tribute Is Rendered To Dr. Staff

Congregational Church Head Dedicates Memorial Here

Splendid Portrait by Miss Bush Presented to Church

Dr. Ozora S. Davis, moderator of the national council of Congregational Churches and president of Chicago Theological seminary, paid a remarkable tribute to the memory of the late Dr. Fred Staff at the Sunday night service in the Congregational Church.

Dr. Davis came to Sierra Madre for the express purpose of dedicating the Fred Staff memorial room in the new church building, having been an intimate friend of Dr. Staff who was twice pastor of the local church. He also presented to the church on behalf of the officers and members of the church by George B. Morggridge. It has been hung in the memorial room, which was dedicated as the men's room of the building.

Reviewing the life of Mr. Staff, who came to this country as a Swedish immigrant boy, Dr. Davis sketched briefly a story of splendid character development. His struggles for an education in South Dakota, at Beloit, and under Dr. Davis at the seminary, his pastorates in Wisconsin, California and Colorado, all furnished incidents throwing light on the qualities which made his life such a powerful influence.

The gift was made by Miss Bush in memory of her aunt, the late Mrs. Ella Townsend Stork. The portrait was unveiled by Miss Ruth Staff and accepted on behalf of the officers and members of the church by George B. Morggridge. It has been hung in the memorial room, which was dedicated as the men's room of the building.

Rev. Hill Is Chosen Rector Local Church

Was Resident of Sierra Madre More Than Twenty Years Ago

Announcement is made this week of the acceptance by the Rev. Leslie Hill of the position of Rector of the Church of the Ascension to which he was recently elected by the vestry. He has already assumed the post, having been in charge as supply for some weeks past. Formal installation will take place at some time to be announced later, when it is expected the bishop of the Episcopal diocese will be present.

The Rev. Mr. Hill is not a stranger to Sierra Madre, having resided here about twenty years ago when his father, C. W. Hill, was for a short time publisher of the Sierra Madre News. Upon the removal of the Hill family to Spokane, Mr. Hill attended Whitman College for two years, after which he went to Harvard where he received his bachelor's degree. Later he attended Western Theological Seminary in Chicago and the General Theological Seminary in New York. He also spent a year attending Columbia University in the department of philosophy.

Bishop Cross of Spokane ordained Mr. Hill both as deacon and priest. He spent two years in the mission field of southeastern Washington with headquarters at Dayton. After his ordination to the priesthood he was for some time in charge of the parish at Pullman, Wash., where he was also student pastor for the state college.

During 1927 Rev. Mr. Hill spent seven months in Europe, visiting various English cathedrals, including the 1300th anniversary of York minster. At Lincoln Cathedral he was given by the dean some interesting stones for Bishop Cross to be incorporated in the new Spokane cathedral. These included a piece showing old Norman carving and a stone from an early English arch.

During the early part of the present year Rev. Mr. Hill was assistant in Holy Trinity Parish, Spokane. During the summer months he has been in charge of Grace Church and the Chapel of the Advent, Los Angeles. Since returning to Sierra Madre he has been kept busy renewing old acquaintances and becoming familiar with the parish. He declares that in the years of his absence he has always felt the charm of Sierra Madre and is more than glad to be located here again.

Muir Tech Girls Hope to Swamp Boys in Contest

The boys and girls of Muir Tech are engaged in a paper drag, the result of which is to determine whether or not the girls enjoy generous helpings of ice cream and popcorn at the boys' expense.

So earnestly intent are the girls in the desire to inflict more or less permanent injury on their boy friends' financial reserves that they are going after papers in a most business-like manner, and Miss Linda Schwartz urges everyone having a supply of old papers and magazines to call either Blue 202 or Green 13. Miss Schwartz and her associates promise prompt removal of such material, and will be very grateful for any assistance that may be given.

Cabaret to Offer Many Attractions

Dinner Dance in Club House to Have Clever Vaudeville Entertainment

The Cabaret Dinner Dance, featuring a Hallowe'en chicken dinner, will afford an evening of many surprises and delights to those fortunate enough to have made reservations at the Woman's Club House for tomorrow night. The affair is open to the public, and is sponsored by the Woman's Club, with Mrs. Carol E. King, chairman of the ways and means committee in charge.

Patrons and patronesses for the evening are: Mrs. Frank Hart, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Sadler, Mr. and Mrs. Woodson Jones, Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bacon, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Porter, and Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hull.

The vaudeville under the direction of Mrs. J. Milton Steinberger and Mrs. R. M. Finlayson, gives promise of many clever offerings. For the most part, these will come as surprises, the participants being clouded in mystery pro tem. However, the pony ballet will include Mrs. Inez Black, Mary Young, Betty Moore, Mary Davis, Ruth Klunk, Frances Glidden and Gertrude Bandy. Miss Josephine Nelson has coached these girls and we are assured a splendid performance. Miss Nelson, who until recently was associated with the West Coast Theatre and the "Good News" musical comedy, is an artist of exceptional ability, and will give a solo dance which includes some of the steps from "Good News".

The Pep Prince Jazz Orchestra will furnish the music from 7 p. m. thru the evening, which promises not a dull moment. Young people may come in to dance after 8:30. Bridge may also be played by those not caring to dance.

The committee urges you not to miss the first big affair of the winter social season. Tickets at Sadler's, Central Pharmacy, or thru Mrs. Carol E. King, Blue 175, for reservations for the dinner. The affair is announced as informal.

Over $1,000 Given Here For Relief

Red Cross Chapter Sends Aid to Sufferers from Hurricane

Additional contributions to the Red Cross Relief Fund for Florida and West Indies hurricane sufferers have brought the total Sierra Madre fund to $1012.50. The following have been received during the week by Chairman W. R. Humphries of the local chapter: E. Doolittle, $1; Mary A. Gleim, $1; V. S. Guildford, $5; Noname, $3; Noname, $2; Mrs. Senour, $2; Mrs. P. K. Miller, $10; Janet Elizabeth Thompson, $1; J. T. Asbury, $2; Modern Priscillas, $5; previously acknowledged, $982.50; total, $1012.50.

Grateful acknowledgment of Sierra Madre's contributions has been received from San Francisco headquarters. Particular stress was laid upon the generous sum given in proportion to the size of the community.

The service was largely attended, including a number of friends of Dr. Staff from other places. After the service they enjoyed the opportunity to inspect the portrait, which they pronounced wonderfully faithful to the original, and one with the same skill which has made the miniatures of Miss Bush so much admired.

Col. Hersey Tells About The Weather

Workings of U. S. Weather Bureau Explained to Men's Club

Value of Forecasts to Business and Agriculture Is Told

While weather forecasting has not been reduced to an exact science like astronomy, it has proven sufficiently accurate to be worth untold millions to commerce and agriculture in the United States, declared Col. H. B. Hersey in an address at the Men's Community Club dinner last night. The talk on the work and methods of the weather bureau was thoroughly enjoyed by the group of more than sixty men, many of whom remained afterwards to ask questions and get further light on the subject from Col. Hersey, who is director of the bureau in Los Angeles.

Benjamin Franklin pioneered in systematic weather observation in the United States as he did in many other branches of science and industry, declared Col. Hersey. From his day the development was slow until shortly after the period of the Civil War when the spread of telegraph and newspaper facilities gave it an impetus. Now the country is covered completely by observation stations, by means of which conditions are reported minutely and frequently, so the movement of storms and other conditions can be foretold with a high percentage of accuracy.

Practically all storm areas move across the continent from east to west, explained Col. Hersey. Winds blow from all directions toward the storm center. That explains why an east wind often precedes a rainstorm which actually approaches from the west. The causes developing cyclones, tornadoes and other phenomena were explained. The chief exceptions to the easterly storm movement are the storms originating in the West Indies and Gulf areas. These usually start westward over the ocean, turn north and eventually eastward after reaching the continent.

Much amusement was caused by Ray Grant and Donald Ashmore who were called upon for a contest of skill and accuracy in driving golf balls the length of the social hall over the heads of the crowd. Marvelous self-control was shown by the spectators who had not been informed the balls were soft cotton practice balls.

Rev. A. O. Pritchard told of the prospective use of the social hall for basketball and gymnasium purposes by various boys' groups. He introduced Rev. Mr. Gaus who is organizing these groups and will supervise their activities.

Arrangements were made for the forming of a business men's gym class. The first meeting will be held in the social hall next Monday night at 7:30. B. A. Platte, who has had 18 years of turnverein experience, will direct the work. All business men interested are invited to be present.

Th. Rev. Leslie Hill, new rector of the Church of the Ascension, was introduced and spoke briefly of his pleasure at returning to Sierra Madre where he resided 20 years ago. W. R. Humphries told of the plans for the community festival to be held during the week beginning October 29.

The delicious dinner was served by a committee headed by Mrs. A. F. Snell, with stuffed flank steaks as the chief item.

John Shipped Run Down by Auto At Intersection

John Shippey, 5-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Shippey, 61 West Highland, was struck by an automobile at the corner of Highland and Auburn Avenues Monday noon. When pulled from beneath the car he was found to be suffering from severe scratches and bruises, but it is not believed his injuries will be permanent.

The boy was struck by a car driven by Mr. L. Rothstein, 724 West Mira Monte. It was just at the noon hour and the lad was on his way to his home, half a block away. A school boy traffic officer was on duty and had flagged the east and west traffic, giving the north and south traffic the right of way. It is supposed the little fellow did not see or understand the signals and started across Auburn Avenue just as Rothstein came along.

At the time of the accident Mr. Shippey, the boy's father, was in San Diego. His mother had been in the hospital. Mr. Shippey returned the next day and reports John is recovering nicely from the effects of the accident.

Locals Lose Fast Game To Visitors

Locals Garner Plenty of Hits But Fail to Garner Counters

With eight hits in the bag to seven for the visitors, three of them for extra bases, Sierra Madre played in tough luck Sunday and came out second best against the Seventh Street Druggs, of Los Angeles. Added to this six local batters were out on outfield flies, while the visitors only lost two out-of-the-field hits. Old Lady Luck was with the visitors, that's all.

Inning 1.—Espenosa up, grounded to Krinkle, thrown out at first. Dean followed suit, going out the same way. Leo Smith caught Monty's grounder between his legs but made the peg in time to retire the side.

Doc Elk, first up for Sierra Madre, grounded out, second to first. Krinkle whiffed and Parker did likewise. No damage done.

Inning 2.—White, up for the Druggs, laced out a neat double, advanced to third on a passed ball that Brain was slow in recovering. Donovan laid down a neat bunt along the first base line. Miller fielded but threw wide to Brain, White scoring. Lico fanned the breeze. Danny found 3 more holes in the air and retired to the bench. Donovan steals second. Harris singles, scoring Donovan. Rumber works Kinney for a walk. Espenosa grounds to E. Smith, who tosses to Harkness, forcing Rumber at second. Two runs, two hits.

E. Smith blocks one of Rumber's shot in the leg and walks to first. Miller grounds out, short to first. Harkness doubles, scoring E. Smith. L. Smith takes one on his sleeve and walks and promptly runs Harkness off second, who is put out sliding into third. Brain swings at three and it's over. One run, one hit.

Inning 3.—Dean up, grounds out Krinkle to Miller. Monty strikes out. White fans. Kinney looks good this inning.

Elk opens with a single; steals second. Krinkle walks. Poehler fouls off several, then whiffs. E. Smith grounds out, pitcher to 1st. One hit, no runs.

Inning 4.—Donovan grounds to Miller. Lico out. E. Smith to Miller. Danny walks. Harris singles. Danny scoring. Rumber safe at first on Harkness' error. Espenosa flies to Harkness. One run, one hit. Miller flies out to deep center field. Harkness pops to first for second out. L. Smith grounds out, second to first.

Inning 5.—Dean out. L. Smith to Miller. Monty beats out an infield hit, but gets thrown out stealing. Lama to Harkness. White lefts to E. Smith in left field.

Lama lams one into deep right that looks like a home run, but he stops at third to catch his breath. Kinney pops a high fly to first. Elk fans. Rumber tries to pick off Lama on third but throws high. Lama races for home, makes a neat slide for the plate—and scores, amid much noise-making from the crowd. Poehler again strikes out. One run, 1 hit.

Inning 6.—Donovan walks. Marcus beats out infield hit. Danny attempts to bunt but flies gently to Kinney who muffs, making all hands safe. This error evidently worries Kinney for he walks both Harris and Rumber, forcing in two runs. Kinney warms up. Farman hits into a double play, Krinkle to Lama to Miller. Dean flies out to Harkness. Two runs, 1 hit.

E. Smith singles. Miller singles. Harkness singles. Smith thrown out at home. Donovan to Harris, and Harris whips the ball to Danny getting Miller off second. L. Smith doubles to left field, scoring Harkness. Lama struck out. Four hits, one run.

Inning 7.—Monty singles. White beats out infield hit to Krinkle, but Krinkle throws to Harkness, getting Monty off second. Donovan grounds out, Krinkle to Miller. Marcus fans. Two hits, no runs.

Kinney strikes out. Elk flies to center. Krinkle walks. Poehler flies to deep center.

Inning 8.—Danny fans. Harris safe on first on Elk's muff. Lama throws low to Miller and Harris takes second. Rumber out, Krinkle to Miller. Farman safe on L. Smith's bobble. Harris taking third. Dean safe on L. Smith's second miscue. Harris scoring. Monty flies to Poehler. 1 hit, 1 run.

E. Smith strikes out. Miller

News Notes from Here and There

Another ball player of the University of Southern California has earned his way into the big show for next year. Ted Sahlberg, former Trojan weight man, recently signed to report at the White Sox training camp next spring.

During the "save a life" campaign conducted in Philadelphia recently, a member of the state highway patrol found a car operated by a Greenwood citizen, with bad foot brakes, worthless emergency brakes, mud-guards so shaky that they were in danger of falling off, a wobbly radiator, only one license tag, no lenses in the headlights, numberless engine, and when the patrolman talked to the driver about the defects he learned the driver could not read or write.

Missourians are warned that this is the last call for the annual October picnic of the Missouri State Society of Southern California in Sycamore Grove, all day Sunday, Oct. 27.

If you just must have your hair cut in Pasadena, don't let any of the city barbers blow on your neck. The city directors have just adopted a health code prohibiting barbers to use nature's bellows in removing stray clippings from the necks of customers, and a violation of the law may be punished by a fine of six months in the city jail.

These actual figures prove that Exchange Members get Higher Citrus Returns

THE real test of marketing efficiency is for the individual grower to compare returns on a per pound or uniform box basis with neighbors who may have other marketing affiliations. The Exchange is always willing and anxious to make such comparisons, over any period, size for size, and grade for grade.

Although comparable sales figures are often difficult to obtain, the auction markets where prices are readily available as public information, furnish a good basis for comparison. Complete auction figures, as published from day to day, for all California Oranges sold at auction during the first ten months of this season show an Exchange premium of 37 cents per box. The Exchange average price on 5,723,795 boxes sold was 37 cents per box more than the average price on 1,112,576 boxes sold by all non-Exchange shippers.

A premium for Exchange growers of 87 cents per box on lemons is shown by auction reports for the same period.

These figures cover all auction markets in which California citrus fruit is sold in any quantity and include all fruit of all grades.

A big share of California citrus fruits, as well as of other principal fruit crops, is sold in the largest cities at auction, admittedly the most efficient sales method for these large eastern distributing centers.

Comparisons such as the above and the more definite pound for pound, or box for box comparisons which the Exchange is always glad to make, reflect the efficiency of this grower's marketing organization.

Why Exchange Members Get Higher Returns

The reasons for these price differences are not hard to find:

- 1 The Exchange has a reputation with the trade, of 35 years' standing, for dependable grades, good pack and a square deal.
- 2 Sunkist advertising has created a tremendous consumer demand for Exchange fruit which is directly reflected in the price returned to the grower.
- 3 The Exchange has more complete market information than any other organization.
- 4 The Exchange maintains an aggressive sales organization.
- 5 Because 75 per cent of the California citrus crop is marketed by the Exchange, it is able to regulate the supply reaching the market and to take instant advantage of every situation for the benefit of its members.

Finally, Exchange members get still further benefits because the cost of all Exchange services (including advertising, traffic adjustments, dealer service, etc.) is less than the marketing cost alone of any other organization.

What the Exchange is

The California Fruit Growers Exchange is a non-profit organization of 11,000 California citrus fruit growers, producing about 75% of the California citrus crop, operated by and for them on a cooperative basis. Its object is to develop the national and international market for California oranges, lemons and grapefruit, and to provide a marketing organization that will sell the fruit of its members most advantageously and at least expense. Receipts from sales, less only actual costs of operation, are returned to growers. Applications are received through all the Exchange's 201 local packing associations, 23 District Exchanges or at the central office in Los Angeles.

Reservations

By J. R. E.

Dr. Yerxa was over from the city Tuesday and in speaking about schools and population, he referred to the change in conditions in the territory surrounding a new school plant in the city. Three years ago, long stretches of business houses, apartments and small houses were standing vacant. Now that the school plant has been completed, the buildings are occupied almost 100 per cent. In other words, the old saying that "Population follows the schools" is still true.

It has been said that in times past, people gave as a reason for leaving town the fact that there was no gas and no theatre here. That, a town without gas and a town without a moving picture theatre would be a most unusual and peculiar sort of a community. We have the gas, of course, and when Mr. Meyers finally gets his new theatre completed people will wonder how we got along without it. Did you ever count the Sierra Madre people attending outside theatres during the course of the week? Neither did we. But we've seen 'em in all parts of the metropolitan area. They not only spend money at the box office, but they often go down early for dinner in the city, or stay for a "bite" after the show. Most of that money will remain in Sierra Madre—when the new theatre is completed. The theatre will help support a dozen different enterprises in Sierra Madre. Every new, worthy enterprise does its bit toward community betterment.

"Fire Flames" last week told about an "accident" that happened when the water was turned on prematurely (by accident, of course) at the previous practice. Some of the boys got a good soaking, but no one was hurt and no one "back-fired." But imagine what happens when the boys answer calls when they are dressed in their "Sunday-go-to-meeting" clothes. They don't run home to effect a quick change, and then go to the fire—they go "as is," and if their clothes are ruined, it's just too bad. That's just one of the drawbacks to belonging to our highly efficient volunteer fire department.

How many readers of Reservations (if any) would set aside two nights in a month for practice, and remain at home night after night and Sunday after Sunday (especially during the driest periods) for the sake of a couple of dollars and the joy they could get out of such community service? Just twenty would do it—and they are already members of the department.

Why not pay the department a decent sum each year, and spread the cost on the taxpayers? It would cost at the most a cent or two per $100 valuation, and the department is already saving the taxpayers many times that amount in low insurance rates.

Reservations would like to see the business men of the city become interested enough to bring the matter before the city council. The present conditions are not just to the members of the department.

Reservations does not know, at this early date, just what sort of programs the people of this city are going to enjoy next summer. But if we don't watch out there won't be many band concerts. Regardless of the tremendously successful concert by the home band recently, there has been little or no interest manifested in the organization by townspeople. One lady contributed $2 to buy music for the band, but that is the only encouragement, either in finance or man—(or boy—) power. The band must have both. Reservations knows of almost a dozen young people who play well enough to be of assistance to the band who have never attended a rehearsal. The few faithful members are becoming discouraged, and Sierra Madre folks will either have to show more interest in the band—or the band will take place with the junior high school—that isn't.

Poor "Doc" Dyer. He'll have to find some other place in which to tell folks how to get to heaven.

Party at School Grounds to Offer Entertainment to Young and Old

A general discussion of the coming Halloween Carnival to be given by the Parent-Teachers' Association occupied a large share of the time at the recent meeting of the association. Opening the meeting, Mrs. Fox, secretary, read the minutes of the previous meeting, and a general discussion followed.

The carnival is to be held for the purpose of securing much-needed funds for school welfare work and also for the partial care of children whose parents are unable to provide proper food and clothing for them. For example, free lunches and free milk are given; shoes and other wearing apparel are supplied, and children who need glasses or medical attention are cared for.

The Baby Clinic, a community project is sponsored by the P.T.A. And the association members urge all mothers with children under 6 years of age to patronize the clinic. It costs nothing and advice on the care and food of the children is given.

Elaborate plans have been made for the "party." The children will wear costumes and a parade will start at 5:30. Dinner will be served at 6:30, and a snappy program will start at 8 o'clock. On the program will appear the famous Sierra Madre Quartet and other notables.

Candy, cooked foods, doughnuts and drinks will be sold on the grounds. Among the features will be a fish pond and a white elephant booth, and as a special favor, the association members ask that you "look over your worldly goods, and all things that you tired of looking at, dusting off, or moving around, send to Miss Steinberger's office, or bring them yourself (the cause is worth the effort) and we will be ever grateful."

Tickets are 50 cents and reservations must be made in advance. Call Mrs. Stimpfing, Red 177. However, there will be plenty of food for everyone so come in costume if you like, but come and bring grandma, grandpa and the children. Let us all respond generously.

At the meeting held Wednesday Miss Bundy of Los Angeles, addressed the members on "Dramatic Education," stressing the value of developing the child's emotional and dramatic life to meet his spiritual and daily needs, with the view in mind of overcoming self-consciousness (and possibly conceit) which sometimes remains with them through life, and also to help the child meet unpleasant situations with which he comes in daily contact. Miss Bundy feels that Sierra Madre has need of and would benefit by having classes in this branch of education.

Now since the school problem is such an issue in our whole community let us put forth every effort to attend these meetings and get in touch with the teachers, school affairs and school problems in general. Increased Volume means lower prices, and volume in sales is our aim in these advertisements. During the past several months we have worked on the basis of rock bottom prices so that you might be able to buy as economically here as at any market in Los Angeles county. Your continued co-operation is essential, for without sales volume it is impossible to sell at lower prices.
